Surrey Urban Farmers Market

About Our Market!

The Surrey Urban Farmers Market (SUFM) Association is a volunteer organization that manages a weekly community farmers market. The market emphasizes fresh, local produce and food products, plants, flowers, handmade jewellery, and artisan specialty items. With the City of Surrey's well-known cultural diversity, we attempt to focus on offering diverse options and activities for everyone to enjoy. We also participate in a Food Nutrition Coupon program for low-income residents in Surrey.

The SUFM is a gathering place where our customers are not only able to buy food but they are also able to feed their minds as the market features local community groups and live entertainment every week.

The 2018 market season runs each Wednesday afternoon starting June 6th through October 3rd from 2pm – 6pm.

We also strive to meet Metro Vancouver's Zero Waste Challenge and set an example by generating as little trash as possible while demonstrating sustainable practices.

We are located in the plaza of the North Surrey Recreation Centre, at 102nd Avenue between City Parkway and University Blvd, just two blocks west of King George Boulevard. The Market location is steps away from the Surrey Central SkyTrain station and bus loop, SFU-Surrey, Central City shopping mall, the City Centre Library and Surrey City Hall. Within the downtown core there are over 21,000 residents, nearly 17,000 workers and 5,000 students. Within three kilometres of the market is a population of over 87,000 people.

The SUFM has developed regulations to be followed by all SUFM market vendors. In order to be accepted as a vendor, you must read and agree to all SUFM regulations (regulations are attached to this application form).

If you do not agree with the SUFM regulations, please do not submit an application form.

About Us!

The Surrey Urban Farmers Market Association is a registered non-profit society. A volunteer board of directors administers the market and relies on the contributions of a number of community volunteers. A Market Manager oversees the operation on behalf of the Association.
